

CONGRATULATIONS CLASS OF 2020!

May 2020

Dear graduates of the Global Cultural Studies Major and the Program in Literature:

Our heartiest congratulations on the successful completion of your studies during the COVID-19 global crisis. Watching each of you grow in intellect, imagination, and critical sophistication has been our absolute pride and joy, and we are confident that what you have achieved here is only the beginning of a lifelong process of learning, one that will take you to exciting, if as-yet unknown, destinations. Wherever you are, remember that you have each contributed to the distinction of our major and doctoral program, and that you will always be a precious part of our community, your home. Go forth with curiosity, courage, and fortitude, and live well in good health!

With the warmest blessings on behalf of all Literature faculty, staff, and students,

Rey Chow
Program Director

Antonio Viego
Director of Undergraduate Studies

Markos Hadjioannou
Director of Undergraduate Studies, Spring 2020

Mark Hansen
Director of Graduate Studies

The Program in Literature
Duke University
Durham, NC
USA
<https://literature.duke.edu>