Graduate In: _____
Area of Interest: _____

Ten courses are required to fulfill the major. Two courses LIT 201S and LIT 301S are required. In addition, a GCS major completes five core Literature courses, at least one course from each of the three categories: Experience, Interpretation and Medium. These courses must be taught by primary or secondary Literature faculty. Consult the department website and/or major advisor for a list of core courses. For students not pursuing an honors thesis, one of these five core Literature courses must be a Senior Culminating Experience (defined as any one of the following: a senior seminar, an independent study, or a graduate-level course, taken during the senior year).

If a student chooses to write an honors thesis, they must have a minimum overall GPA of 3.0, a GPA of 3.2 in the major and an honors thesis grade of B+ or above. The seminars associated with the honors thesis LIT 495 and LIT 496 do not count towards the ten Literature courses required for the major.
